

ICONSAT

An International Conference on Nanoscience and Technology (ICONSAT-2008) is to be held at Chennai, Tamil Nadu, INDIA during February 27-29, 2008. This Conference, sponsored by the National Initiative on Nano Science and Technology of the Department of Science and Technology, Govt. of India, is the third in the series following ICONSAT-2003 held in December 2003 at Kolkata, and ICONSAT-2006 held in March 2006 at New Delhi. The conference will provide an opportunity for students, researchers, technologist and entrepreneurs to interact on the current developments and future trends in the multidisciplinary area of Nanoscience and Nanotechnology. The structure of the Conference will comprise of invited talks and contributed poster presentations.

ICONSAT-2008 will deliberate on the front line areas of Nano Science and Technology that include :

- o Novel Synthesis Routes
- o Functionality & Properties at Nanoscale
- o New Applications & Nanodevices
- o Computational Nanoscience &
- o Nanobiology

Abstract

Authors are requested to fill in the preliminary registration form, and submit a one page abstract following the guidelines for submission provided in the Conference

Website: <http://www.iconsat2008.com> In case of difficulty of uploading, the abstract may be emailed to iconsat08@igcar.gov.in
